Georgetown and V. M. I. to Battle for Honors Today.

Both Teams in First Class Condition -A Close and Exciting Came Promised-Blue and Grey Sure of Victory-Hard Practice Work.

This afternoon at 2:20 o'clock the up against the crack Virginia Military Institute eleven. The game promises to be very close and exciting, as both teams are in first-class condition and have been working hard for this contest. The Vtrginia boys are here to get revenge for their defeat of last year at the hands of the Blue and Grey eleven. They will have many of last year's stars in the line-up today, and will put their strongest team on the field. They are very confident that they will be the victors.

The local players are equally as confident that they will again defeat the eleven from zeross the Potomac, and will do so in a decisive manner. This conprovement in the work of every man on the team since their defeat at the hands of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute eleven last Saturday. Barry will be out of the game this afternoon, and his services will be greatly missed. The guard positions will be filled by McLaughlin and Kearns. Both of these men understand every detail of the game, and have played these positions before. McLaughlin played a strong, fast game lasi Saturday, and can be relied upon to do the same whenever he is in the game. Kearns has not faced a strong team this season, but is in good condition, and will make his man fight hard to get through him. Both are excellent on interference, and very often get in the end plays with the backs.

At tackle will be seen two of Georgetown's best players, Drill and Mackay, These men need so introduction, as their work of last year will be well remembered by the local enthusiasts. Both are in fine condition for the fray.

Owens and Edmondston will look after the ends. Both are good men. Owens is one of the factest runners in the university and is a sure tackler. Edmondston will have to work hard to keep up with his mate, but all are confident that he will do so.

He is very fast, a sure passer, and strong tackle. Reilley is too well known to be mentioned, except to say that he will play the game of his life this afternoon, as more will be expected of him with Barry out of the game. Edmondston is a fest man in getting away, and is expected to get around the ends more than once for good gains. Hardesty will make his first appearance behind the line on the varsity. He has been playing on the scrubs and has proven himself such a good man that Coach Church will given him a tryout today. He is a good ground gatner and is a hard man to down. The V. M. On many occasions the runner would dodge through his opponents and go almost the whole length of the field without even being touched. Once during the first half the Business braced up somewhat after the ball was within a few feet of their goal line, but they were mable to stop the rushes of the Preps, and gave way before them.

It would be a very hard matter to pick out the men who played the star game for the Preps, as every man on the team was in every play, and all showed the effects of good coaching. They never lost sight of the ball, each player taking care chance during the game that was afforded
